Faircity Roodevallei receives Travelers' Choice Award

Faircity Roodevallei has been awarded a Travelers' Choice Award for 2018 from TripAdvisor. Established in 2002, the Travellers' Choice awards are the highest honour TripAdvisor can bestow. These annual awards are the only travel industry awards based on millions of reviews and opinions from travellers around the world. They reflect "the best of the best" for service, quality, and customer satisfaction. This means that based on reviews and opinions from numerous of travellers, Faircity Roodevallei in the top 1% of hotels.

General Manager Paul Duverge said, "In the past Faircity Roodevallei has always been known as a conference and events hotel. Over these last few months we have had a huge drive to change this perception, repositioning ourselves as a multi-faceted hotel capable of catering to a variety of guest needs. We have renovated our pool and upgraded our jacuzzi as well as installed a trampoline and games room for the little ones. "

"The Travelers' Choice award therefore is proof of the great strides we have made. The fact that our guests have recognised the improvements we have made only serves as motivation for management and our teams to continue to deliver exceptional service and quality."
