

Heuwels Fantasties – A ‘Faircity’ night of music, fun and festivities

One of Cape Town’s favourite bands, Heuwels Fantasties, whose fame is rapidly growing nationwide, invite you to an unforgettable night under the stars, next to the Pienaar’s River on the beautiful lawns of ‘Roodevalley, a ‘Faircity’ Hotel.

Bring your blankets and camp chairs and come and chill to the sounds of a great group in this whole weekend gig - starting on Saturday, 19 May @ 16:00 until Sunday 20 May @ 00:00 - and bring the kids too, there will be fun activities including jumping castle, sand art, build your own pizza and lots more!

For the adults, there will be food stalls, shooters, gin shooters and Craft beer on tap through promotions taking place throughout the event!

Faircity Roodevalley Hotel

Accommodation is available at the Faircity ‘Roodevalley hotel’ for those who book early!

Surrounded by a nature reserve and a bird sanctuary, this tranquil African feel hotel offers a relaxed bush setting on the banks of the Pienaar’s River in Pretoria. Our handpicked, experienced staff, committed to ensuring high-quality service and an extra-ordinary experience in every venue, have earned us an array of hospitality awards.

Something about the band

Die Heuwels Fantasties is an Afrikaans Alternative Pop Rock group from Bellville, Cape Town in South Africa. This ground-breaking group is considered to be the first successful Afrikaans electronic act. The group describe their music as “melodic songs written on acoustic guitar, interpreted with electronic and organic instruments. You can call it pop.”

Tickets online and on the day

Tickets may be purchased online and printed with ‘homeprint’ and will also be sold on the day at the venue. Kids under 12 enter free, Scholars 12-18 pay R40 and Adults pay R80. This ticket price is for entrance only.

A few rules of the event - No food, alcohol or soft drinks will be allowed and regrettably the event is not wheel chair friendly.

Don’t miss this chance to take in some of South Africa’s finest newest talent, stay over at one of the country’s finest hotels and make it a weekend of fun for the whole family. The early booking of tickets and especially accommodation is strongly advised!
