About Faircity Mapungubwe:

Faircity Mapungubwe is a chic urban hotel in the heart of the inner city in Johannesburg. Formerly a French bank, the building still retains the original bank vaults, which together with the contemporary African décor gives the hotel its own unique personality. The area is rich in history and culture, with theatres, art galleries and museums nearby to discover and explore. The hotel has 96 rooms offering convenient and comfortable 4-star accommodation catering for both business and leisure guests, with facilities and services to ensure a relaxed and enjoyable stay.

About Faircity Hotels:

Faircity Hotels is a vibrant and progressive hotel group specialising in owning, managing and co-developing hotels in Southern Africa. Our primary service offering is business and conference hotels, as well as serviced apartments.

The hotel group was started by a couple of energetic entrepreneurs that were not afraid to take chances. They were not limited by the approach of “this is how it has always been done” and have been able to think outside of the norms to create an experience guided by their guests’ needs and expectations.

We take pride in providing remarkable and personalised service through every aspect of our business. At this stage of our growth, we see ourselves as big enough to make a difference, yet small enough to care.
